In 1994, we opened the door to casual, carefree cruising through the heart of Europe with two 100-ton ships on the River Danube. Born out of a desire to create a different way to explore, we've now spent over two decades charting new waters. We've pioneered new approaches to everything from flexibility and multigenerational cruising to sustainability and authenticity. Today, our fleet of 10 contemporary ships sails on Europe's most beautiful rivers, the Rhine, Main, Moselle, Danube, Meuse, Rhône and Douro.

We've built an unrivalled knowledge of Europe's rivers and forged deep relationships with both the places we visit and the people we work alongside. We've grown an experienced team, dedicated to making every 10-day journey both plain sailing and a joy to experience.

In 2008, we expanded our reach to new shores, redesigning our signature European flavour for English-speaking guests and attracting like-minded, international travellers from all corners of the world. It makes our onboard atmosphere truly unique, wonderfully cosmopolitan and promises discovery-loving guests a true taste of the rivers we know so well.

But we never stand still. More than ever before, 10-day cruises focus on the destinations we love. With overnight stays in iconic cities and authentic local entertainment in selected ports, a journey with 10-day is the chance to immerse yourself in the rich culture of this beautiful continent like never before.

RHINE MAIN MO

Set sail on your next big adventure. Or perhaps a small one. And no matter where you're headed start your voyage to endless variety. On the one hand, you can explore the Rhine snaking far and wide up to the North Sea. On the other, the Moselle winding between mountains and castles, and the Main carrying you back to the present day visiting the ultra-modern city of Frankfurt. Go ahead and start dreaming of your journey from one picturesque destination to the next.

NORTHERN RHINE

SOUTHERN RHINE

The Rhine is one of the busiest waterways in the world. But what many people don't realise is that it's also one of the most beautiful rivers in the world. A large part of the Rhine flows through Germany. Our journeys on the northern section of the river take us mainly through the Netherlands, but also through Belgium.

Wondering what there is to see while travelling on the southern Rhine, Moselle and Main? Well, the question is rather what can't you see times you will see the same scenery

Antwerp

The Belgian city of Antwerp is a glittering destination for visitors. Probably because it has been a hub for the diamond trade for centuries. This industry is primarily focussed in the Diamond Quarter, which is a great place to visit. Art lovers will enjoy the Rubens House, while culture vultures will love the Museum aan de Stroom, which tells a new story about Antwerp, the river and the port on every floor.

Rotterdam

The Dutch metropolis on the Meuse is home to Europe's largest seaport. But the city also has historic ships to see in the Old Harbour. You can then climb the Euromast and ascend up to 207 metres in the rotating lift. Back on the ground, Rotterdam's bright yellow cube houses are sure to turn your head. The residential cube-shaped buildings appear as though they are upside down - you can even visit one and explore. Also make sure to take a trip to the market hall. The horseshoe-shaped glass giant houses over 100 stands, which are sure to bring out your inner foodie. You can digest your experience later in Market, where you can relax among the ducks and small lakes.

St. Lawrence

Your stairway to heaven is just a few steps away - exactly 100 of them, to be precise. That's how high the towers of Cologne Cathedral are. Excitement running just as high in the Old Town.

Perhaps start with a glass of Pilsch or two before wandering through the medieval alleyways around the Alter Markt. Got a sweet tooth? The chocolate museum is sure to delight, especially its three-metre-high chocolate fountain. So on, have a taste!

Finish with a slice of cake in the trendy Belgian Quarter - the perfect icing on top for your day.

Amsterdam

No matter where you set foot on land for the first time in Amsterdam, you'll be greeted by the sound of a bicycle bell on almost every square centimetre of the city. The best thing to do is to join the locals and explore the city by bike - the Regent Streets, the many parks and the city centre are extremely bike-friendly. Do you prefer things a little quieter? Why not take a boat trip through the canal belt?

Frankfurt

Before your adventure on the Main River begins aboard the Rhine, Europe's financial hub will leave you feeling sky-high - quite literally. Just look up at the skyline, soaring up to 230 metres into the sky.

A different world awaits at your feet in the Old Town. Stroll past the Imperial Cathedral, Goethe's birthplace, St Paul's Church, and the historic Römer. Once a patrician villa, this building has served as Frankfurt's city hall for over 1000 years.

Why not take a break in a cosy corner cafe away from the hustle and bustle? Nestled between timber-framed houses, it's the perfect place to sit back and marvel at how relaxed this banking city can be.

Worms

In the centre of the Upper Middle Rhine Valley lies the most famous slate rock in Germany: the Borelei. Anyone who's always looked at the Rhine from above can expect a completely new perspective from the river.

Strasbourg

A city full of history, where the future of Europe is being written. Strasbourg delights visitors with its winding alleyways, the tanners' Quarter, La Petite France, Alsatian specialities, the imposing cathedral and, of course, the European Quarter.

Wine

On a visit to the River Main, you can expect to see plenty of historic towns with lovingly restored old centres: Würzburg, Bamberg, Regensburg and the futuristic Frankfurt provides a bit of variety to the itinerary.

Moselle

On the Moselle, everything revolves around wine. Stroll through small winegrowing towns such as Berncastel-Kues and Cochem, gain experience as a sommelier at wine tastings and marvel at the steep vineyards. Trier impresses as Germany's oldest city with nine UNESCO World Heritage buildings.

AN

As you leaf through the new destinations to discover, you're suddenly overcome with wanderlust. You see vineyard valleys and winegrowing villages, the gorges of the Iron Gate and the Danube Delta stretching out to welcome you. You picture yourself in a Viennese coffee house in front of a balcony and then in the midst of Budapest's glittering lights where you simply throw the troubles of everyday life overboard. Let yourself be carried away a little longer and just keep turning the pages.

AN

The Danube is one of the most impressive rivers in the world. It flows 2,800 kilometres through wild nature, lush vineyards and several European capital cities.

THE DANUBE

Whether before or after your 5-10 day cruise, if you have a little extra time, Passau is ready to show you all it has to offer.

Start at St Stephen's Cathedral, home to the largest cathedral organ in the world, with nearly 30,000 pipes. Or head up to Festung Berchtesgaden, one of Europe's most impressive fortresses, offering breathtaking views over the city from above.

In Passau, even the small, quieter moments are enchanting for visitors. Wander from Residenzplatz into the narrow cobbled lanes lined with charming, crooked houses, or take a seat on the grassy banks of the Inn promenade. Enjoy an ice cream and let time melt away.

Water, don't miss the Reiflingseeck, where the Danube, Inn and Ilz rivers flow together in striking shades of blue, green, and black. For even more colour, visit the Glass Museum, which sparkles with over 10,000 pieces spanning 100 years of European glassmaking history.

VIENNA

The imperial city of Vienna does not ask much of its guests. Just open your eyes and enjoy the sights because there is a lot to see. St Stephen's Cathedral and Hofburg Palace can be explored on foot, and you can see Vienna from above from the Rater. Or you can visit Schöenbrunn Palace and Stardens and discover the UNESCO World Heritage Site on your own during a walk through the royal premises.

BRATISLAVA

What was it again about the little things in life? The Slovakian capital is a true treasure in that regard. Even from a distance, you can see the city's landmark perched on a hill above Bratislava: the rebuilt Bratislava Castle. And you should definitely visit it, especially for the view of the winding old town. In the Orský Park, you can then satisfy your desire to explore as you stroll under the dense trees. Quench your thirst with a refreshing beer in one of the small breweries. This is not the only place where you will encounter another treasure of Bratislava: the warm-hearted people.

THE DANUBE

Take a deep breath before the UNESCO World Cultural and Natural Heritage Site takes your breath away. For 100 kilometres, you sail through the most beautiful river valleys in Europe – a wonderful world of vineyards, gently rolling hills and steep cliffs. Mysterious castle ruins and spiritual monasteries sit enthroned on the peaks. For example, the almost 1,000-year-old Elkbey.

THE DANUBE DELTA

Shortly before reaching the Black Sea, the Danube passes through another very special stretch of land. The Danube Delta comprises lakes, forests and marshes and provides a habitat for over 1,000 animal and plant species.

THE DANUBE

Two become one summarises the great idea the rulers of Auda and West had many years ago – to simply connect the cities across the Danube to form Budapest. The Danube is not the only source of water here though, as there are a number of hot springs beneath the city which feed the famous thermal baths. The most well-known are the Szechenyi Baths, the Millrt Baths and theudas Baths.

Special and Event Cruise

IN

IN

The best way to enjoy your rendezvous with the Seine today is to sit back, daydream and let it flow through your heart. Why does it all feel so romantic – perhaps because the goddess Séluna once transformed herself into the Seine. Since then, it has been winding its enchanting currents around the most beautiful locations in Paris, chasing away the daily grind at one of its favourite places, flowing freely in the Norman coastal landscape ... And if you keep turning the pages, you can embark on your next rendezvous with the Seine.

THE SEINE

Chalk cliffs, fairytale castles, castle ruins and apple orchards where soon-to-be alvados is ripening. This is Normandy. Now about a glass of cider and a piece of amembert in one of the many small towns like Erville.

THE NORMAN

Normandy's largest city is a detour away from the run of the mill. It starts at the waterfront promenade with the colourful giant arches made of shipping containers. Almost completely destroyed in 1944, the plucky decision was made to rebuild the city centre. Modern, cosmopolitan architecture everywhere. Like the Breton's unusual town hall. You'll find yourself standing on France's largest town hall square as you count the floors. Theglise Saint-Joseph offers up even more grandeur, with its church tower rising 100 metres into the Norman sky. Come in and stand in the centre and above you, you'll see a kaleidoscope of thousands of colourful, sparkling glass stones.

THE NORMAN

In the former border town between Normandy and France, you'll feel as though you have been teleported back into the Middle Ages. Especially at the foot of the Tour des Archives and Tour de la Farine towers. Take a leisurely stroll through some of the tranquil alleyways, across the sparkling Seine to idyllic landscaped gardens, meadows and hedgerows. These are what make Vernon the green garden of Paris. You're sure to recognise the half-timbered mill here, as Claude Monet immortalised it many years ago. His works and those of other Impressionist painters await you at the Musée Iphigénie Georges Boulain.

IN

On the Seine, you can experience both the cosmopolitan chic of Paris and the rugged beauty of Normandy. The perfect blend

PARIS

No other city in the world radiates love quite like Paris. But here, it's not only the air of romance that enchants and beguiles its visitors but also the exquisite cuisine. One visit to one of the city's Michelin-starred restaurants and your tastebuds will be forever changed.

Later, enjoy sweeping views over the heart of the city from the rooftop terrace of Galeries Lafayette, before immersing yourself in all the city of love has to offer. Lose all sense of time on the steps of Sacré-Coeur, wander through the stylish Marais district, recharge by the peaceful Port de Arsenal...

Or take a stroll across Pont de Birakeim. As you stand on arguably the most beautiful bridge of Paris, you can look forward to everything that's still to come on your Seine cruise. Or reminisce about everything you've already experienced, with the Eiffel Tower providing the perfect backdrop for your selfies.

NORMAN

The best holidays are those where time seems to stand still. No problem in Rouen as the whole city looks like it's straight out of the Middle Ages. However, a lot has happened since the execution of Joan of Arc in 1412. Perfect for strolling through narrow alleyways and feeling truly young again compared to all the old townhouses.

R N A N

If your heart is pounding right now, it's because the South of France is knocking and making everything feel effortless. Just as its people embrace life with that unmistakable joie de vivre style. With a passion for everything that sweetens the moment. Strolling through lavender fields in the summer breeze, raising a glass in Burgundy, indulging in the colourful hustle and bustle of Lyon's traboules ... Everything is saturated in the colours of the south and a joy that lasts forever. Turn the page and keep smiling.

You're sitting comfortably in your garden at home and suddenly your thoughts start wandering - mobile phone off, holiday dreams on. You're travelling south in your mind. Your garden becomes a sun deck and your terrace becomes a port wine, with one of the most beautiful river valleys in the world unfolding around you. All bathed in warm summer evening light. Everyday life seems a distant memory and the clock is set to relaxation time. You stroll off the ship and take in the golden beauty of Salamanca and the Porto lighthouse. You count the mussels in your hand and taste the spray on your lips. Wait a minute, perhaps this isn't a dream after all ...

OURO

Included excursions:
 Port wine tasting and dinner at a quinta.

In the north-west of Portugal, the Douro connects many of the culturally most important cities and towns. So there is plenty to discover.

Right spots wherever you look

One of these is the Farolim de Felgueiras lighthouse. For 100 years, it has cast its light onto the Atlantic Ocean, into which the Douro flows right next door. With the sea air in your nostrils, you stroll towards the heart of Porto. Around you is relaxed serenity, mixed with a friendly hustle and bustle. And in front of you is the Trindade Church, with its marble art and gold craftsmanship, it takes people's breath away. You still have some time to spare in the Monte do Luís you have a clear view from 100 metres up in the air. Just like the daring bridge jumps right next door.

Port wine

Port grapes have been grown in the Douro region for over 1000 years. The Portuguese use them to make their world-famous port wines, among other things. The region has been a protected wine-growing region since 1976, the oldest of its kind and even a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2001.

Excursions

Gua and Vinhó are the centrepieces of the Douro region and port wine production. In September and October, our excursions to the grape harvest start from Vinhó. In Gua, you can visit the Museu do Douro, take a ride on the historic railway or walk around the town.

Excursions to Salamanca

Probably the most exciting excursion on this trip is the one to Salamanca in Spain. Explore the ancient university, the Plaza Mayor, the most beautiful square in Spain and two cathedrals that were simply built right next to one another. Note: Excursions are subject to minimum numbers.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS 2026

Dear guests, please read the following Terms and Conditions of travel carefully. They shall become, insofar as they are effectively agreed upon, the content of the travel contract to be concluded between the customer and A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH. They are supplementary to legal provisions of Sections 650a to 650m of the German Civil Code and Articles 17 and 18 of the Introductory Act to the German Civil Code and fulfil these.

1. CONCLUSION OF THE TRAVEL CONTRACT / OBLIGATIONS FOR FELLOW TRAVELLERS

1.1. The following applies to all booking channels e.g. in a travel agency, direct booking with the operator, by telephone, online, etc.

1.2. This offer is based on the trip advertisement and the supplementary information provided by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH for the respective trip to the extent it is available to the customer at the time of booking.

1.3. The customer is responsible for all contractual obligations of the travellers for whom he/she makes the booking and for his/her own obligations to the extent he/she has assumed this obligation by making an express and separate declaration.

1.4. The content of the booking confirmation from A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH differs from the content of the booking, it shall be deemed a new offer from A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH that shall be binding for a period of ten days. The contract shall be concluded on the basis of this new offer if A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH has drawn attention to the change regarding the new offer and fulfilled its pre-contractual information obligations and if the customer has accepted the offer within the binding period set by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH by making an express declaration or down payment.

1.5. An option booking is made, the planned trip shall be reserved for three working days. After this period, the option will automatically become a confirmed booking. Within this period, the customer may choose another travel date or another route free of charge or cancel the trip free of charge.

1.6. Bookings made orally, by telephone, in writing, by email, text message or by fax are subject to the following provisions: a) By making a booking or registering for travel, the customer makes an offer to A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH to conclude the travel contract with binding effect.

1.7. The contract shall be formed when the booking confirmation or declaration of acceptance of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is received. It does not require any particular form. Upon or immediately after the conclusion of the contract, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH shall send the customer confirmation of the booking in written or electronic form.

1.8. In addition to e-commerce bookings (e.g. online, app, telemedia), the conclusion of contracts is subject to the following provisions:

1.9. The electronic booking process is explained to the customer in the respective application.

1.10. The customer will have the option to correct his/her entries or delete or reset the entire booking form, and the use of this option will be explained.

1.11. The website will list the contractual languages that are offered for making the electronic booking.

1.12. The text of the contract is stored by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, the customer will be informed about this and about his/her option to access the text of the contract at a later time. e) By clicking on the book or book with binding obligation to pay or a similar formulation, the customer makes an offer to A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH to conclude the travel contract with binding effect.

1.13. The customer will receive an electronic confirmation stating that his/her registration for travel was received without undue delay. Acknowledgement of receipt.

1.14. The fact that the registration for travel is transmitted by clicking on the button does not give rise to a claim by the customer that a contract will be formed.

1.15. The contract is only formed upon the customer's receipt of the booking confirmation from A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH on a durable medium. If the website confirms the booking immediately after the customer clicks on the book or book with binding obligation to pay or by displaying the respective immediate booking confirmation on the screen, the travel contract is formed when this booking confirmation is displayed. In this case, an interim notification regarding receipt of the booking in accordance with 1.15 above is not required, insofar as the customer is given the option to save the booking confirmation on a durable medium and to print it out. However, the binding effect of the travel contract does not depend on the customer actually making use of these options to save or print it.

1.16. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH emphasises that, in accordance with legal provisions of Sections 650a to 650m of the German Civil Code and Articles 17 and 18 of the Introductory Act to the German Civil Code, concluded by distance selling letters, catalogues, telephone calls, faxes, emails, text messages, radio, telemedia and online services. Instead, the customer has statutory rights of withdrawal and termination, especially the right of withdrawal pursuant to Section 650h of the German Civil Code in this regard. However, a right of revocation exists if the contract for travel services pursuant to Section 650a of the German Civil Code was concluded away from business premises, unless the oral negotiations on which the contract conclusion is based were conducted based on the consumer's previous order. There is no right of revocation in the latter case.

2. PAYMENTS

2.1. The down payment of 50% of the travel price is due for payment following contract conclusion. Receipt of the booking confirmation and receipt of the risk coverage certificate pursuant to Section 650a of the German Civil Code in conjunction with Article 17 and 18 of the Introductory Act to the German Civil Code when the down payment has been made, the full premium for an insurance policy brokered by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH shall also fall due. Payment is made by credit card or transfer directly to A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, depending on the payment method chosen by the customer. Unless expressly agreed otherwise with A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, payments to intermediary travel agencies do not discharge the obligation to make payment. The outstanding amount shall fall due 30 days before the start of the trip insofar as the risk coverage certificate has been issued and A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH can no longer exercise its right of revocation for the reasons set out in 2.2. Where bookings are made within 30 days of the start of the trip, the travel price shall be due in full without delay insofar as the risk coverage certificate has been issued.

2.3. If the customer does not make the down payment and/or the outstanding payment by the agreed due dates, even though A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is willing and able to duly render the contractual services and has fulfilled its statutory information obligations and the customer does not have a statutory or contractual right of retention, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH shall be entitled, after issuing a reminder and setting a final deadline, to cancel the travel contract and charge the customer cancellation costs as set out in 2.4. to 2.6. After full payment for the cruise, but no earlier than three weeks before the start of the cruise, the customer will be issued his/her travel information.

3. SERVICES AND PRICES

3.1. The scope of the services which A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is obliged to perform is set out in the contents of the booking confirmation in association with the catalogue or cruise description valid at the time of the cruise, subject to all the information and explanations contained therein, including any individual agreements.

3.2. Connecting tours by train/coach/plane must be organised and booked by the customer himself/herself. Upon request, connecting tours may be booked through A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH.

3.3. Any concessions arising from the age of the customer shall be based on the customer's age on the date of the start of the cruise.

4. CHANGES TO CONTRACTUAL CONTENT BEFORE THE START OF THE TRIP THAT DO NOT AFFECT THE TRAVEL PRICE

4.1. Deviations in essential characteristics of the travel services from the agreed content of the travel contract which were not caused by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH in bad faith and which become necessary after the conclusion of the contract shall be permitted vis-à-vis A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH before the start of travel. Changes include, for example, rebooking on an identical ship of the same cruise line, changes to sailing times and/or itineraries in the event of unforeseen high or low water levels for safety or weather reasons, the complete or partial cancellation of parts of the itinerary or the use of alternative means of transportation, avoidance of passing through without stopping of at-risk areas in the event of a pandemic, cancellation or alteration of excursion programmes in some cases hotel accommodation may be required.

4.2. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is obliged to clearly and comprehensibly inform the customer of changes to services immediately after it becomes aware of the reason for such on a durable medium e.g. also by email, text message or voice message in a manner that highlights the change.

4.3. In the event of a significant change to an essential characteristic of a travel service or a deviation from the customer's particular specifications that have been included in the travel contract, Section 650g of the German Civil Code applies. If the change affects the content of the travel contract, the customer shall be entitled, within a suitable period set by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, at the same time as communication of the change to either accept the change, cancel the travel contract without charge or request a place on a substitute trip if A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH has offered such a trip. The customer may choose to respond, or not respond, to the communication from A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH. If the customer responds to A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, he/she may either agree to the change, request a place on a substitute trip if such has been offered or cancel the contract free of charge. If the customer does not respond to A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH at all or within the period set, the communicated change shall be deemed to have been accepted. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH will draw the customer's attention to this fact in the communication regarding the service change in accordance with 2.3 in a clear, comprehensible manner that highlights the change.

4.4. Any warranty claims shall remain unaffected insofar as the changed services are deficient.

5. PRICE CHANGES AFTER THE CONCLUSION OF THE CONTRACT

5.1. If the transport costs, in particular fuel costs, increase in relation to those which existed at the time of the conclusion of the travel contract, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH will increase the price of the cruise in accordance with the following calculation: a) In the case of an increase relating to an individual seat, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH may demand an increased amount from the customer.

5.2. In other cases, the additional amount demanded by the transport company per means of transport will be divided by the number of seats on the agreed means of transport. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH may demand from the customer the increased amount for an individual seat calculated in this way.

5.3. If charges such as taxes, port or airport fees are increased to the detriment of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, or if tourist culture taxes or similar are added or newly introduced at individual destinations, the travel price may be increased by a corresponding proportional amount or the difference may be charged to the onboard account.

5.4. Such increases shall only be permissible insofar as the period following the conclusion of the contract and the agreed date of the cruise is longer than one month. In the event of a subsequent change to the travel price, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH must inform the customer without delay. The price increases after the 30th day before the start of the cruise shall be invalid. If the price increases by more than 10%, the customer shall have the right to cancel the contract without charge or request a place on a trip of at least the same value, provided that A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is in a position to offer the customer such a trip without additional charge from among those it has on offer. After being informed by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH about the price increase, the customer shall be obliged to assert this right without delay.

5.5. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is obliged to pass on price reductions to the customer in accordance with the above.

6. CANCELLATION BY A-ROSA FLUSSSCHIFF GMBH ON GROUNDS OF CONDUCT AND CANCELLATION OF THE CONTRACT OWING TO THE MINIMUM NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS NOT BEING REACHED

6.1. If a guest's mental or physical condition does not allow them to travel or continue the journey because they are unfit to travel or pose a danger to themselves or others on board, transport may be refused or the guest's holiday may be terminated at any time. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is not liable for any additional costs incurred. The same applies if the guest requires special care due to a mental or physical disability that goes beyond the contractually agreed services of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH and the guest does not have an accompanying person for this care.

6.2. In doubt, it is advisable to make a specific enquiry at the time of booking.

6.3. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is entitled to terminate the contract if the guest brings on board weapons, ammunition, explosive or inflammable substances, etc., or if the guest consumes or brings on board drugs or commits a criminal offence. In an attempt to do any of the above shall also constitute cause for termination.

6.4. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH may terminate the travel contract without notice if, despite warnings from A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH, the customer/traveller continually causes disturbances or behaves in violation of the contract. Danger to life and limb to such a degree that the immediate cancellation of the contract is justified. This does not apply if the conduct in violation of the contract is based on a violation of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH's information obligations. If A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH cancels the contract, it retains its claim to the travel price if it must, however, take into account the value of any savings in expenses as well as any benefits that may accrue through alternative utilisation of services not utilised by the person concerned, including any amounts refunded by the respective service providers. In these cases, the staff employed by A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH and the ship's crew are explicitly authorised to protect the interests of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH.

6.5. If the minimum number of participants (minimum persons) specified in the brochure or the booking confirmation is not reached, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH may cancel the travel contract up to 30 days prior to the start of the trip. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH is obliged to inform the traveller that the precondition for the cancellation of the cruise has been met as soon as this situation arises and to send him/her the cancellation declaration without delay. If the trip is not undertaken for this reason, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH must refund the customer's payments made towards the travel price without delay, and in any case within 30 days after receipt of the cancellation declaration.

If the trip was booked through a travel agent, the cancellation declaration may also be sent to this agent. The customer is advised to send the cancellation declaration on a durable medium.

8.2. If the customer cancels before the start of the trip or does not begin the trip, A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH loses its claim to the travel price. A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH may instead demand suitable compensation for the travel arrangements made prior to the cancellation and its expenses in accordance with the actual travel price, unless it is responsible for the cancellation or extraordinary circumstances arise at or in the immediate vicinity of the destination that have a significantly adverse effect on the execution of the trip or the transport of persons to the destination. Circumstances are extraordinary and unavoidable if they are beyond the control of the tour operator and their consequences could not have been avoided even if all reasonable precautions had been taken. In the event of cancellation by the customer, a percentage rate of compensation for travel arrangements made and expenses incurred shall become payable, the amount of which depends on the date when the cancellation declaration is received and the expected amount of saved expenses. It is therefore recommended that any cancellation declaration be made on a durable medium e.g. in writing. The percentage rate of compensation is calculated as follows:

12.6. Report of deficiencies/request for remedy

12.7. The trip is not executed free of deficiencies, the traveller may demand redress. If here baggage has been damaged, the claim must be submitted within seven days after receipt of the baggage and in the case of late arrival within 30 days.

12.12. In addition, the loss, damage or misdirection of baggage must be reported to the tour guide or the local representative of A-Rosa Flussschiff GmbH without delay. This does not release the traveller from the obligation to file a claim with the airline within the above periods in accordance with 12.11.
